)	CR417-050
VICTOR NATSON,)
)
Defendant.)

ORDER

Victor Natson moves for a hearing “to determine the admissibility and voluntariness of any statements made by Defendant to the authorities.” Doc. 77 at 1 (emphasis added) (citing Jackson v. Denno, 378 U.S. 368 (1964)). He indicates that he made “statements [] during his arrest while he was handcuffed and being taken into custody” and seeks the hearing “to the extent” that he “made certain statements and admissions that may be self-incriminating.” Id. The Court cannot, however, discern from these hazy descriptions the content or context of the statements made. See id. at 2 (“If Mr. Natson provided statements to authorities, he is entitled to a Jackson-Denno hearing regarding any such statements.” (emphases added)).

By no later than 12:00 p.m. on August 28, 2017, defendant shall submit to the Court further briefing describing what statements, if any, he made to law enforcement that warrant a Jackson-Denno hearing.

SO ORDERED, this 24th day of August, 2017.
